DAN SMOOT

FIRST ROLL CALLS, 1963

Roll call tabulations in this Report are unique in that we try to select only those votes which reflect a stand for or against constitutional principles.

We consider a 1-billion-dollar foreign aid program as bad in principle as a 4-billion-dollar foreign aid program; a 1-billion-dollar urban renewal program, as unconstitutional as a 10-billion-dollar urban renewal program. We are not interested in "economy-minded" legislators. If they vote to spend any tax money at all on programs which are not clearly authorized by some grant of power in the Constitution, they are voting liberal, which means against constitutional principles. We do not believe in reducing unconstitutional programs; we believe in abolishing them.

We never select for tabulation a roll call vote after first looking to see which legislators voted which way. We are not concerned with "building a record" for or against any Senator or Representative. Letting the chips fall where they may, we are, however, eager to see a growing number of legislators build for themselves a record of voting consistently for constitutional principles.

All of this being understood, it will encourage constitutional conservatives to notice that, on the basis of roll calls tabulated in this Report, the 88th Congress is, so far, the best Congress we have had in a very long time.

In the roll calls tabulated below, 23 United States Senators made constitutionalist ratings of 80% or better — 8 of them making 100% ratings. The House looks even better. In the tabulations below, 120 United States Representatives made constitutionalist ratings of 80% or better — 50 of them making 100% ratings.

For detailed comparison between the voting of the 87th Congress in 1962 and of the 88th Congress to the middle of May, 1963, examine the votes tabulated below, and then refer to this Report dated October 1, 1962, entitled "Voting Records, 1962."

On May 17, 1963 — 18 weeks after the 88th Congress convened — Congress had approved only 1 of 25 major pieces of legislation desired by President Kennedy: the Feed Grains Bill.

This congressional resistance to the Kennedy program in 1963 reflects the dedicated, yet often frustrating, efforts of American constitutional conservatives who keep Congress informed on how they feel.

A surprising number of constitutional conservatives, in all parts of the country, spend a great deal of time, energy, and money in support of constitutional principles. They write their elected representatives; and they distribute conservative materials to friends, urging them to write. Many eventually write me, in tones of despair, saying their efforts do no good, because Congress ignores their viewpoint. The roll call votes tabulated below show otherwise.

By the end of March, 1963, it was widely reported that Robert F. Kennedy, Attorney General, had prepared a list of conservative Democrats whom the Kennedy Administration plans to "purge" from Congress in 1964, because of their opposition to Kennedy programs. Robert F. Kennedy has denied the reports. But The Washington Star has published details on meetings held by COPE (political action arm of the AFL-CIO) at which the "purge" program was discussed — meetings attended by officials of the national Democrat Party. The people should meet this challenge head-on: they should purge liberals from Congress in 1964.

Filibuster

On February 7, 1963, the Senate, by a stand of 56 to 44, rejected Administration attempts to limit debate in the Senate. The vote is shown below in Column 1 under Senate — C indicating a vote to continue the ancient principle of unlimited debate.

Urban Mass Transportation

On April 4, 1963, by a stand of 54 to 45, the Senate passed the Mass Transportation Act of 1963 (S 6). The vote is shown below in Column 2 under Senate — C indicating a vote against. The bill has cleared committees in the House but has not yet been voted on.

The Bill would provide 375 million federal tax dollars as matching grants to states and cities for buying out private public transportation firms, or improving existing facilities, either under private or public ownership. This program is, as Senator Frank J. Lausche (Democrat, Ohio) says, a "vote-buying device" which would cost taxpayers billions of dollars. Existing subsidy programs (to airlines and railroads) already have us on the road toward nationalization (government ownership) of all transportation facilities. The Urban Mass Transportation Bill would be another giant stride down that road.

Wilderness Bill

On April 9, 1963, the Senate, by a stand of 85 to 15, passed the National Wilderness Preservation System Act (S 4). The vote is shown below in Column 3 under Senate — C indicating a vote against. Hearings on this Bill have not yet been scheduled in the House.

This Bill would place 65.4 million acres of land in a "Wilderness System," under tight control of presidential appointees who could permit or prohibit commercial activity; who could prohibit private capital from developing hydro-electric power facilities, but permit government-owned power facilities; who could permit or prohibit the grazing of livestock; who could permit or prohibit the building of roads; who could permit or prohibit mining and prospecting — all in accordance with the wishes of the President.

Youth Conservation Corps

On April 10, 1963, the Senate, by a stand of 57 to 42, passed the Youth Employment Act of 1963 (S 1). The vote is shown below in Column 4 under Senate — C indicating a vote against. The measure has cleared committees in the House but has not yet come to a vote. The Bill could create an American counter-part of government youth organizations which are essential tools of dictatorship in all communist countries, as they were in nazi Germany and in fascist Italy before World War II.

Accelerated Public Works

In 1962, Congress passed the Public Works Acceleration Act, authorizing 900 million dollars for public works projects (which are vote-buying spending programs generally placed in key districts where politicians wish to reward political supporters). Congress appropriated 400 million for the program in 1962. On April 10, 1963, the House, by a stand of 233 to 189, authorized another 450 million dollar appropriation: see Column 3 below under House — C indicating a vote against the new 450 million dollar appropriation. On May 1, 1963, the Senate, by a stand of 68 to 30, approved the House action: see Column 5 below under Senate.

Income Tax Enforcers

On November 28, 1962, Mortimer M. Caplin, Commissioner of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service, announced:

"President Kennedy approved Public Law 87-863, which authorizes Special Agents, Intelligence, and Internal Security Investigators to execute and serve search and arrest warrants, to seize property, to serve subpoenas and summonses, and to make arrests without warrants under certain circumstances."

On May 8, 1963, the Senate, by a stand of 60 to 30, refused to grant 20 million, 800 thousand dollars to add 1184 more enforcement agents to the current IRS staff of 25,618 enforcers, who exercise powers prohibited by the American Bill of Rights. This Senate vote is shown below in Column 6 under Senate — C indicating a vote against the additional funds. The House never considered this effort to hire more IRS enforcers.

Rules Committee

On January 9, 1963, the House, by a stand of 235 to 196, approved permanent enlargement of the House Rules Committee. The sole purpose was to give totalitarian liberals a majority, thus handicapping conservative opposition to Administration proposals. This vote is shown below in Column 1 under House — C indicating a vote against enlargement of the Rules Committee.

Commodity Credit Corporation

On February 27, 1963, the House, by a stand of 258 to 158, authorized a supplemental appropriation of 508 million, 172 thousand dollars ($508,172,000) to the Commodity Credit Corporation for the remainder of fiscal 1963 (through June 30). The vote is shown below in Column 2 under House — C indicating a vote against. The Senate approved the supplemental appropriation by voice vote on March 4. The Commodity Credit Corporation — which dispenses tax money for the government's farm price support programs — has cost taxpayers 20 billion dollars since 1934; and, with that money, has financed corruption (like the Billie Sol Estes operation) and is driving small farmers off their land, which is being taken over by big syndicates and promoters.

Silver Legislation

On April 10, 1963, the House, by a stand of 252 to 123, passed a Bill (HR 5389) which, among other things, eliminates the silver backing for 1-dollar bills, replacing them with Federal Reserve notes which are supposed to have fractional gold backing. But the national gold reserve for monetary backing is already more than totally mortgaged to foreigners. This Bill to demonetize silver certificates would create greater drain on our gold reserve, and speed arrival of the day when foreigners may decide to wreck our entire economy by foreclosing on the gold in our monetary reserve. The House vote on this "Silver Bill" is shown below in Column 4 under House — C indicating a vote against. Hearings on the Bill have not yet been scheduled in the Senate.

Federalized Medical Training

On April 24, 1963, the House, by a stand of 292 to 126, passed the Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1963, authorizing 175 million dollars in aid to all kinds of medical schools, and thirty million, 700 thousand dollars ($30,700,000) for loans to all kinds of medical students. Hearings on this Bill have not yet been scheduled in the Senate. The House vote is shown below in Column 5 under House — C indicating a vote against.

Feed Grains, 1963

On April 25, 1963, the House, by a stand of 219 to 206, passed HR 4997, a Bill to extend Kennedy's Feed Grains program for two more years. The vote is shown below in Column 6 under House — C indicating a vote against. This program gives the government control of the feed grains industry, and is a backdoor approach to government control of the livestock industry. The Bill passed the Senate on May 16, 1963. The Senate roll call will be recorded in a subsequent Report.

International Peace Corps

In October, 1962, representatives from various nations met in San Juan, Puerto Rico and decided that, in addition to the American Peace Corps, there ought to be an International Peace Corps. Kennedy's representative promised $150,000 to finance the new international outfit "during the trial period." Congress was told nothing about this commitment to spend tax money. In May, 1963, the House (which is supposed to initiate all money bills) was asked to approve a Senate Amendment to the Supplemental Appropriations Bill authorizing $65,000 as the American contribution to the International Peace Corps. By a stand of 219 to 202, on May 8, the House refused. See Column 7 below under House — C indicating a vote against the appropriation.

WHAT TO DO

Conservatives should congratulate Representatives and Senators who (as shown in the following tabulations) have decent constitutionalist voting records — many of them, for the first time since they have been in Congress.

WHO IS DAN SMOOT?

Born in Missouri, reared in Texas, Dan Smoot went to SMU in Dallas, getting BA and MA degrees in 1938 and 1940. In 1941, he joined the faculty at Harvard as a Teaching Fellow in English, doing graduate work for a doctorate in American Civilization.

In 1942, he left Harvard and joined the FBI. As an FBI Agent, he worked for three and a half years on communist investigations in the industrial Midwest; two years as an administrative assistant to J. Edgar Hoover on FBI headquarters staff in Washington; and almost four years on general FBI cases in various parts of the nation.

In 1951, Smoot resigned from the FBI and helped start Facts Forum. On Facts Forum radio and television programs, Smoot spoke to a national audience, giving both sides of controversial issues.

In July, 1955, he resigned and started his present independent publishing and broadcasting business — a free-enterprise operation financed entirely by profits from sales: sales of The Dan Smoot Report, a weekly magazine; and sales of a weekly news-analysis broadcast, to business firms, for use on radio and television as an advertising vehicle. The Report and the broadcast give only one side in presenting documented truth about important issues — the side that uses the American Constitution as a yardstick. The Report is available by subscription; and the broadcasts are available for commercial sponsorship, anywhere in the United States.

If you think Dan Smoot is providing effective tools for Americans fighting socialism and communism, you can help immensely — by helping him get more customers for his Report and broadcasts.
